Reform In Banking System Necessary W. R. Howson Says

Liberal Leader Congratulates City of Calgary on Stand

Time for reform of the prevailing banking system was arrived at, said W. R. Howson, leader of the provincial Liberal forces on Saturday, in discussing the situation with which the city of Calgary finds itself regarding refinancing of its indebtedness due Jan. 1.

Calgary has refused to make any exchange and the Bank of Montreal has refused a bank of credit after Jan. 1.

Commenting on the situation as a whole Mr. Howson said: "The city of Calgary is to be congratulated upon the stand it has taken in connection with payment of the taxpayers by the province."

The fact that the banks and other municipalities and the province has already paid out several hundreds of thousands of dollars of the taxpayers' money in exchange which the proper advice would have been to refuse.
